Summary

Founder of Juice Gels and Marketing Communications graduate (BA Hons, University of Westminster) with experience building brands across both consumer and commercial industries. As Marketing Manager at Synergy Exchange, I built the company's marketing function from the ground up, leading a content-led strategy centred around personal branding, storytelling and digital content. Passionate about building brands from the ground up, I combine creativity with commercial thinking to create marketing that connects with audiences and drives growth.

Experience

Founder | Juice Gels (Self-employed) | Jan 2025 – Present

- Founded and independently manage Juice Gels, a handmade press-on nail brand, overseeing brand strategy, product development, pricing, customer experience and day-to-day business operations.
- Develop and execute multi-channel marketing campaigns across Instagram, TikTok and the brand website, producing original short-form video, photography and branded content to grow awareness and engagement.
- Designed and launched the Juice Gels e-commerce website and Instagram Shop, creating an end-to-end customer journey including custom ordering, sizing, FAQs and post-purchase experience.

- Lead creative direction across all brand touchpoints, including visual identity, product photography, seasonal launches and campaign planning, while continuously evolving the brand positioning beyond Etsy.
- Planned and delivered Juice Gels' first in-person pop-up event at Rich Mix, managing event preparation, merchandising, pricing strategy and customer engagement.

Marketing Manager | Synergy Exchange Limited | October 2025 - Present

- Lead the company's marketing function, developing and executing a content-led, relationship-first marketing strategy across LinkedIn, Instagram, Facebook, TikTok, YouTube and email marketing.
- Introduced and established a personal branding approach within the business, helping shift the company's marketing towards more authentic, social-led content that showcases the people behind the brand.
- Produced, filmed and edited high-performing short-form video content using CapCut, alongside creating branded assets and campaign materials in Canva.
- Manage weekly email marketing campaigns through Klaviyo, creating engaging content to educate and nurture prospective and existing clients.
- Represent the business at industry events and trade exhibitions, producing live content, conducting interviews and strengthening relationships across the commercial finance sector.

Global PR and Social Media Intern | ghd Hair, London | Sept 2023 - Sept 2024

- Created socially native content, including TikTok trends, video edits, and brand-aligned memes.
- Supported launch events: managed VIP guest lists and gifting logistics.
- Assisted with organising social shoots; sourced props and supported on-set operations.
- Conducted EMV performance reports across global social platforms and competitors.
- Drafted creative briefs for shoots, aligning photographers, stylists, and models.

Social Media Manager | Cafe Chibo, London | Jan 2022 - Apr 2023

- Built and executed content calendars featuring posts, reels, and stories.
- Engaged with the online community through comments, DMs, and tagged content.
- Led seasonal campaigns to drive awareness of specials and new menu items.
- Analysed Instagram metrics to refine content strategy and improve engagement.
